

Republic of Cyprus ready to welcome foreign visitors

Cyprus is now ready to welcome travellers from various countries. Having successfully dealt with the Covid-19 epidemic, the Ministers of Foreign Affairs, Transport and the Deputy Minister of Tourism are addressing foreign travel agents, tour operators, and airlines informing them of specific guidelines and strict inspections in place, in order to welcome foreign visitors to Cyprus.

To read the letter signed by the Ministers, as well as further information regarding travelling to Cyprus, click here.