

Council of Ministers decides new easing of measures: presence of fans at games at 50% capacity and 10 persons per table in catering establishments

Following the recommendation of the Minister of Health, Mr Constantinos Ioannou, the Council of Ministers has decided today that the presence of fans at games of all sports will be allowed at 50% of stadium capacity, with effect as of 1 July 2021.

Admission to the stadiums will only be allowed to individuals, under the following conditions:

1. Individuals who have completed their vaccination scheme with either the Johnson&Johnson single-dose vaccine or with both doses of the authorized vaccines of Moderna, AstraZeneca or Pfizer/BioNTech.
2. Individuals holding a certificate with a negative PCR or rapid test result, after having undergone the test within 24 hours prior to the start of the game.
3. Individuals who have been infected with COVID-19 in the last six months and have a certificate of recovery given by the Ministry of Health.

The above decision will be regularly evaluated, with the intention to gradually increase the percentage of fans allowed, as long as the epidemiological data permits it.

In addition, given the improvement of the epidemiological indicators, the Council of Ministers has decided today the increase of the number of persons allowed per table in catering establishments to 10 per table. This decision will be regulated by a Decree and shall enter into force upon the Decree's publication.
